HA HA HA HA HA
 Yo Carrie, (F.A.O.) (Fat, fat, elephant) my best best, best, friend! you told me to write little so I will. Really, really, really. You are my best friend and always will be. you know what I love you. And you know what. I am queen ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha. And I funny.
 Damon were almost out of north. ^{for}
 We get to go to A.H.H.S in Sept- ^{mercy} ember. There's a lot of sexy babies there. They'll be in time to get dates with us. Because were so gargo sorry for how I spelled. I can't help it that I'm dumb. I'm trying to write as little as I can but its getting sigger even second. Well Balie Thanks for letting me come to you with my problems all those years.
 And thanks for getting me and Dave together both times. I knew the second one wouldnt last very long.
 Maybe you can do it again. Well, you say your the greatest. LOVE UP ALWAYS Good luck with Maryann (mom) who ever I know.

Carrie i am probely going to tel you most of what i told Mare i told Mare that she was my best friend and you were my best friend to, and one thing i want you to know you will always be my best friend and so will Mare. There was never a saying of anybody saying somebody could have 2 best's friends and if there is well tough shit. I have
2. Just like Stacy Brown had 2 (wo) well Carrie i really know how much you really like Brian or how you used to atleast. And right know i know how much you like Bob and i hope you and him get together some more a hell of a lot more than you've have lately because your not gona get any where seeing each other as little as you guys do. Remember name it after me. OK. Just kidding?
Not really. ya Dam. Well Carrie i asked Burney to come and eat out with us tomorrow or Keshaw and he said i don't know yet. So i told him you would ask him Keshaw
he said OK. Brad & Brenda & Math are going to treasurey Island. & Kathy so i hope they have fun. Swell. Carrie i wish i could right now. But other people have to vine it so i'll be ya Friday night and all the other nights to 4/17/1A. Margie

To my sweet mom who is so nice were gonna be over to your house so much this summer & your gonna have to come over mine alot to go swimming your such a great mom no other mom in this whole US that lets there kids get high & drunk in front of them well I dont have much to say so good luck this summer & stay out

MIDDLE: Whether the direction is north, south, east or west, Tom Myers, Sandy Deleon, and Randall Jackson always say North is the best. TOP LEFT: North's Band on the move. BOTTOM LEFT: Jim Miller says, "Thumbs up!" BOTTOM RIGHT: Mr. Meinecke helps Nelson Davis on a wood project. TOP LEFT: Only the "Shadow" knows what Tim Marr reaches for. BOTTOM LEFT: Help! Let us out. Sorry not until June 9th. MIDDLE: The journalism students who were responsible for bringing you the yearbook and the newspaper. BOTTOM RIGHT: Our president, Melinda Plaughter, smiles while waiting to be video taped.

GOING OUR WAY?

Searching For Directions

Strangers came from east and west to North, where they soon became Vikings. Here they learned to appreciate the "beauty within" and "beauty without."

SCHOOL LIFE

School is more than just
A place to learn;
It's a place to seek and Meet, new or old, friendly
Or not so friendly faces.

It's a place to talk and Get into trouble;
It's a place to express
How you really feel about Yourself and other people.

It's a place to find a Friend to tell your Troubles to;
It's a place where people
Help people.

MIDDLE: North's number one superman, Mike Wacker. RIGHT MIDDLE: Mr. Hinman gives some helpful instructions to Tom Shaler on his math. LOWER: Ann Summerfield smiles sweetly.

MEETING STUDENT NEEDS

Teachers need to go to school too! That's why the department of Health Education and Welfare in April of 1975 granted North School some special monies to hire additional staff and provide workshops to further our work with exceptional students. Since every student has styles of learning that are unique to that student, teachers must also acquire many styles of teaching.

Going to conferences and having time to share ideas with one another is like going back to school for teachers. Another word for this is inservice. Some of the monies from HEW was used to provide a workshop in September for the entire staff of North School. The objective was and is to make school a success story for everyone.

MEETING EVERYONE'S NEEDS: TOP: A typical view of Miss Moon's desk. MIDDLE RIGHT: During a football game Don Barror watches comfortably. MIDDLE LEFT: Roosevelt McGraw working hard. LOWER RIGHT: Mrs. Ihler was hired through the grant to work with students. LOWER MIDDLE: Students in the hearing impaired class used interesting activities to learn the basic skills. LOWER LEFT: Mrs. Pelkki was in charge of coordinating the mainstreaming program.

THE STAFF

Do you ever think about the staff of our school,
And the silly things we put them through;

We shouldn't make them shout,
And they really hate to put us out;

But if that happens to be the case,
Then our parents next we'll have to face;

If they would let us have our way,
We probably wouldn't be where we are today.

-Cheryl Denise Presley

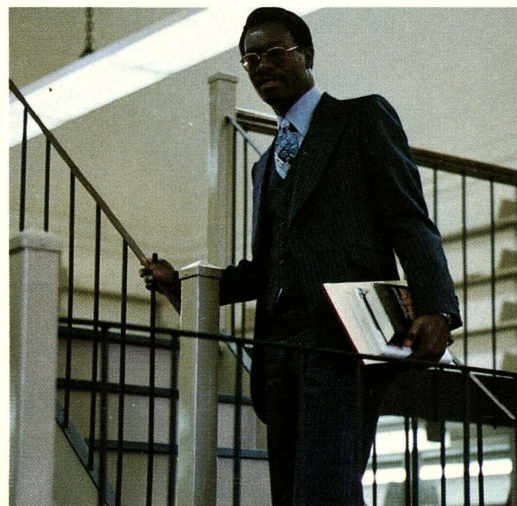

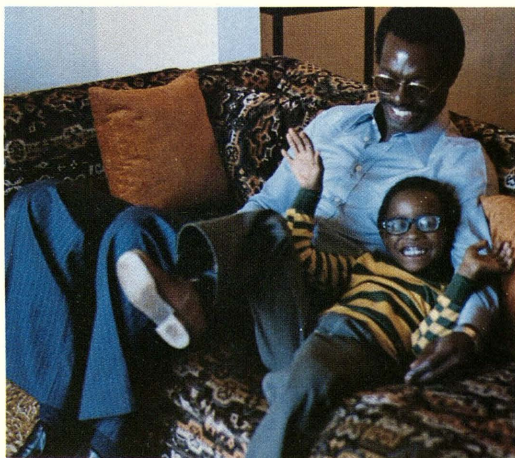

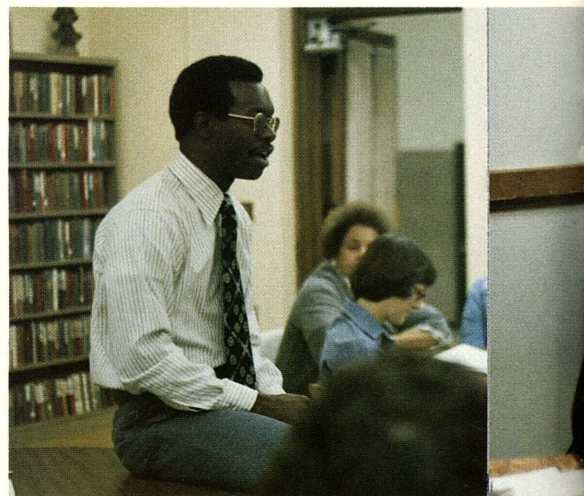

"NORTH IS A GOOD PLACE TO BE"

I was born and raised in Saginaw, and after graduation in 1956 from Saginaw High School, I attended Bay City Junior College and finished my BA degree at Michigan State University. I began teaching in 1961 in Lansing, where I taught Spanish and American History at Walter French Junior High.

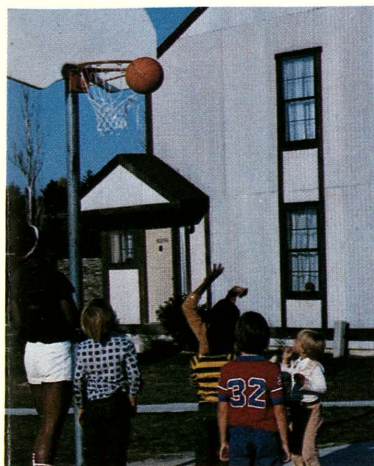

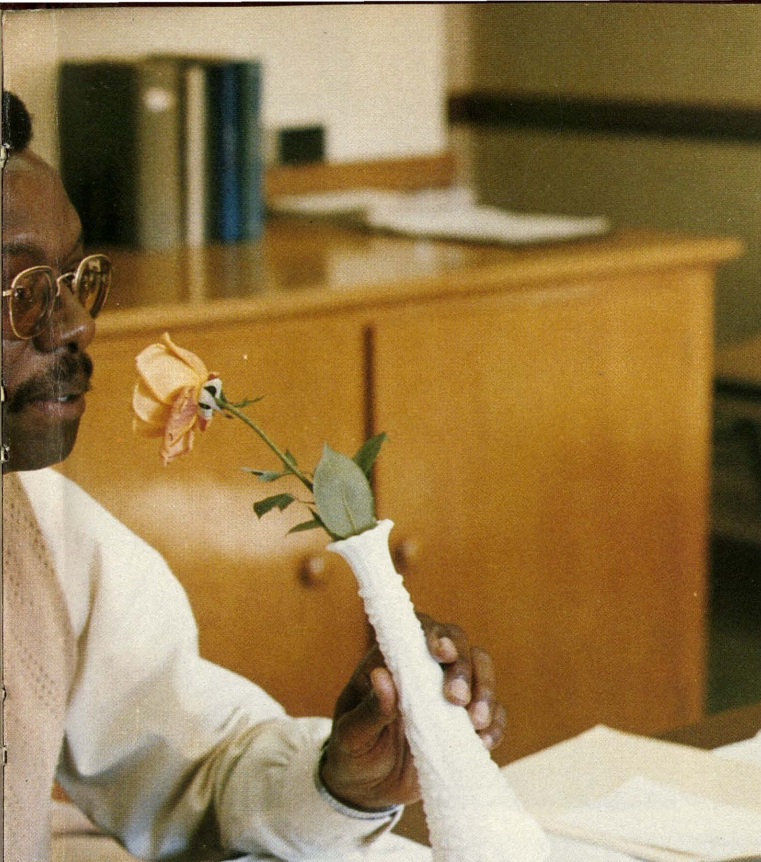

During the time I taught in Lansing, I studied for my MA degree and received it in 1965 in the field of Spanish Language and Literature. In 1966 I accepted an appointment at Wayne State University as instructor in Spanish Languages and Literature and taught there until 1973. Two years later, in 1975 I received a Doctorate of Philosophy degree from the University of Michigan in the field of Romance Languages and Literature, specializing in Spanish Language and Literature.

I am married and have two children. My wife's name is Thelma, my daughter's name is Karyn, she is eleven years old, and my son's name is Alan and he is six years old.

I enjoy reading and doing research and I jog regularly. At North School I am impressed by the educational mood. I feel that North is a good place to be.

NORTH TAKES NEW DIRECTION UNDER DR. RUFFIN

SAGINAW: PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

The new look in Saginaw education that was initiated by the appointment of a new superintendent, Dr. Donald J. Steele Jr. was continued at North School in the form of new staff assignments. Dr. Roosevelt Ruffin, Mrs. Virginia Jones, Mr. Thomas Webb, and Mrs. Gail Oliver added energy, imagination and experience to the North Staff. All of the changes came about at the same time the school district of the city of Saginaw adopted the goals of academic achievement, parental involvement, improved discipline and accountability for 1976-77, while North School focused on affirmative in-service for mainstreaming, a program to involve students with special needs in the regular education program.

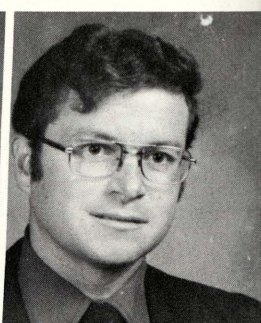

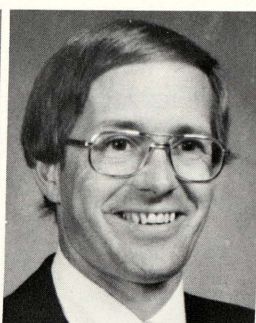

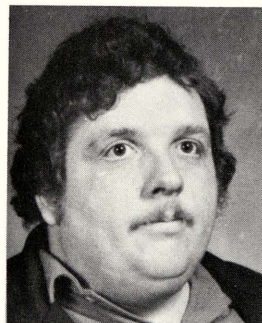

Mrs. Sally Burt, after twenty-one years in the educational field, is retiring to travel and see the United States with her husband, Irving Burt, former principal at Central Junior. North School staff extends warm congratulations and wish both well in their retirement.

election (i lek' shən) n., the selection of a person or persons for office by vote.

That was the scene that took place at North in the beginning of this school year. Six students, out of many, were chosen as candidates for the offices of president and vice president of the student body. The campaign went on for about three weeks. First came petitions, then nominations, posters, videotapes, speeches, and finally elections. Mrs. Pelkki was in command all the way. As we all know, our president is Melinda Plaughter and our vice president is Alicia Skillman. They work along with the student body and staff to make our schools a safe and comfortable place to learn.

VIKING GOVERNMENT

The student council is an important organization of North School. They are responsible for planning all the assemblies and dances. They also helped collect the money for yearbooks and probably the most important duty they performed was to represent each homeroom at the monthly student council meeting.

BEFORE THE FOOTLIGHTS

... AND BEHIND THE SCENES.

The theatre department was active during the 1976-77 school year.

The annual fall children's theatre presentation of "The Clown Who Ran Away" was a delight to children of all ages. Audiences viewing both performances were entertained by walking, talking dolls, a real clown, a very unusual horse named Gladys and a host of interesting characters, who moved the play along to a hilarious conclusion.

A special Thanksgiving assembly was held for the student body which showcased the talents of the music and theatre departments. The modern fables of James Thurber were among the dramatic efforts.

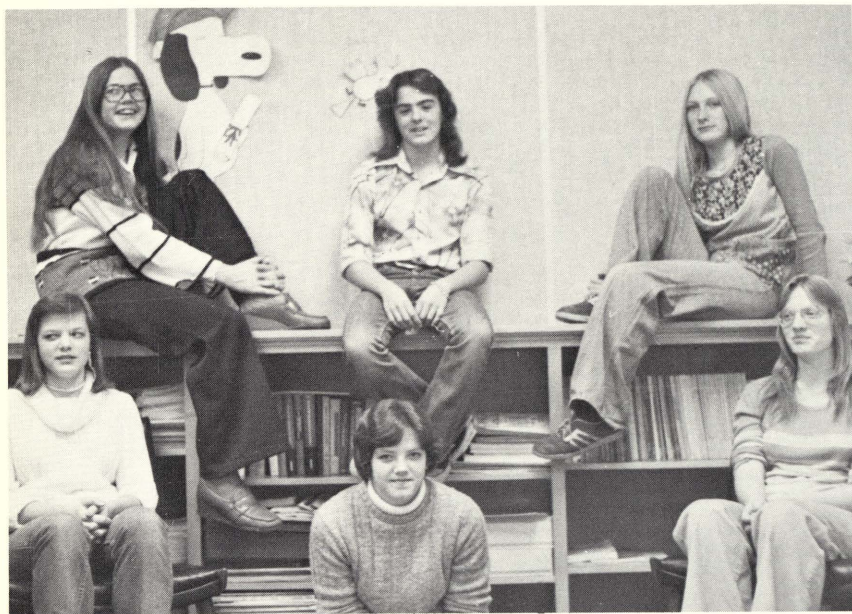

Parents, students and elementary schools were invited to attend the annual Christmas program. The scenes and songs of the season made the program a success.

The drama club and its president, Mark Letherer carried on money-making projects, ushered for programs and supported the department.

Symphonic Sounds

A sometimes overlooked group at North is the orchestra, who deserve more attention because they practice and work just as hard as anyone. Although our orchestra didn't compete in any contests this year, they did perform in fall, winter and spring concerts. About one half of the class has participated in a solo ensemble. We all congratulate the orchestra for their fine music.

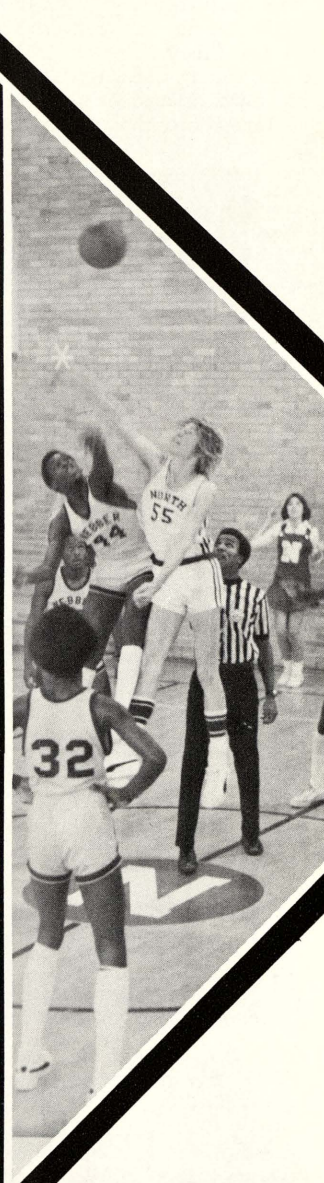

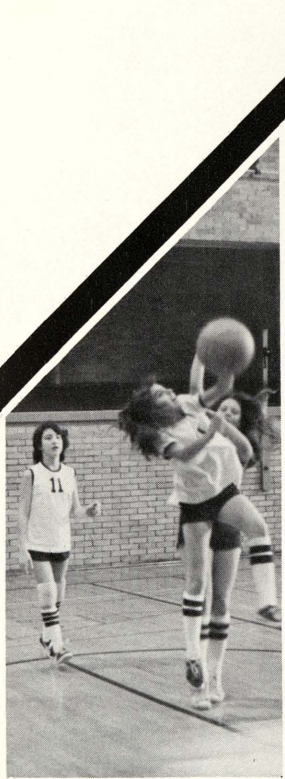

FIRST ROW: Beth Booker, Lisa Gray, Elizabeth Elger, Debbie Campfield, Carol Duma, Carla Norris, Craig Presley, Miriam Piziks, SECOND ROW: Jayme Hammond, Terry Mason, David Hammond, Theresa Norris, Iva Peterson, Theresa Zirkle, STANDING: Mr. Austin, Sue DelaCruz, Joe Taylor, TOP RIGHT: During an assembly, Mr. Austin and his group play some classical disco. RIGHT: Working hard, Katie Laski and Sue DelaCruz, play music to please all who listen.

MAJORETTES: Robin Rogers, Sue Cox, Sherri Greenman, Shelley Lorenzo, Barb Herring, Kelly Reed, Carolyn Wise.

CHALLENGES

In 1976 students and staff enjoyed the beginning of a real difference in school spirit. In assemblies students and grades competed to see who could make the most noise. In an informal survey, the 7th graders out yelled everyone in all cheers.

TOP: 9th grade cheerleaders. Heidi Heritier, Jan Surian. ROW 2: Joni Mikolaiczik, Kelly Tourangeau. The 1976 football season could best be described as progressive although not perfect. The team improved their game every week. The Vikings fought hard during the season with the guidance and encouragement of Coaches Donaghy and Schiesswohl. The team ended the season with a 5-2 record (3-3 in the city). High scorers were Dan Hare and Doug Youngk.

Watch out boys, womens lib is on the move! Boys aren't the only people who are participating in sports these days. Girls are now showing their abilities too, in basketball. Varsity In Action

Believe it or not, basketball is the most widely played and watched team game in the world. It is also the newest of the major team games. It was invented on a cold December day. North has played basketball for a long time and has a reputation for fighting to the end. So be proud to have a team and a chance to play basketball. It's a great sport.

... GET SET ... GO!

A loud bang is heard and then a tremendous splash! The sound of water in turmoil is in the air. It continues until it is drowned out by the roaring of the crowd, cheering for their swimmers, and the race is over. Swimming is a divine art. You must work to become at ease in the water. Swimming is the longest sport at North, and like any other sport, requires alot of hard practicing and effort. Surely the swimmers of North are true athletes.

"76" TEAMS HAD HIGH HOPES FOR 1977

The 1976 spring track program was the first full schedule season for girls. Outstanding track athletes from last year's squad were short sprints - Alicia Skillman, Jamie LaDrig; hurdles - Peggy Stevens; high jump - Debbie Howay; middle and long distance - Debbie Godard and Cathy Brown; and shot put - Julie Kyle.

Mr. Donaghy's track team tried hard last year and he expects a better team this year. A first place is expected in pole vaulting with Scott Despins; quarter mile - Robert Louks; hurdles - Scott Louks. The coach hopes to make them into a fine championship team.

BRAIN POWER

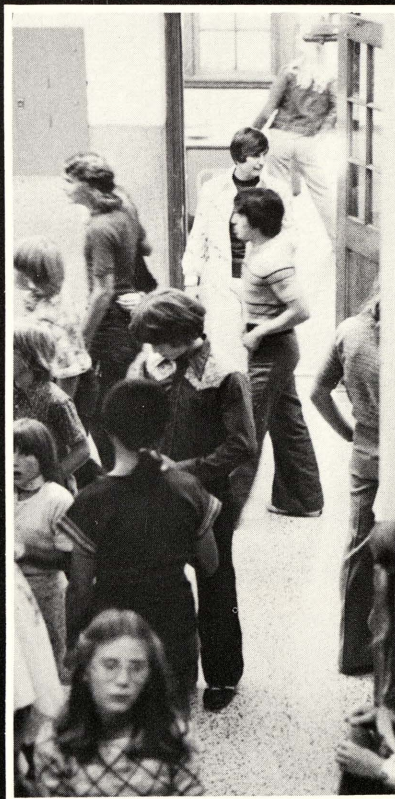

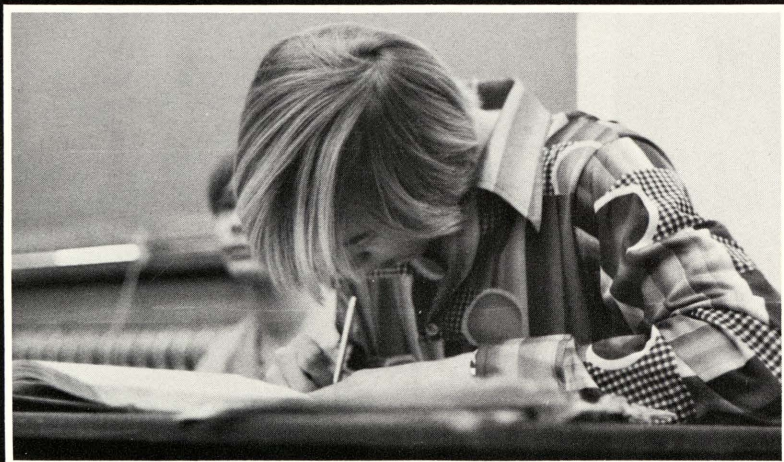

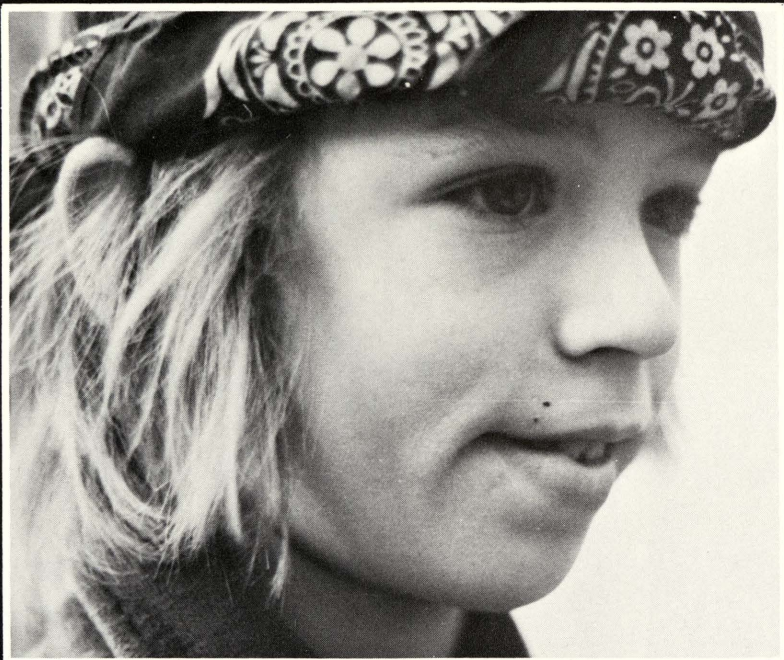

Most activities here at North deal with sports such as football, volleyball and track, or music, like orchestra, band, and choir. There are some exceptions like the Math Olympics and city wide Spelling Bee. Both are important events but are almost forgotten. The students need brain power in contrast to the athletes who need muscle power. These kids should be congratulated for participating in little known activities.

'Have we not been
from childhood friends?
Have I not loved
thee long?
As long as thou hast
loved the night
Whose silence
wakes my song.
'And when thy heart
is laid at rest
Beneath the churchyard
stone
I shall have time
enough to mourn
And thou to be alone.
